Suggestions and Expectations

This 54 page curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of this novel study guide focuses on one chapter of A Long Way From Chicago and is comprised of four different activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Activities

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to

- a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
- b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
- c) compare and contrast two characters;
- d) determine how characters . . . respond to challenges;
- e) drawing inferences from the text;
- f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking. Students will also be expected to provide clear answers to questions and well-constructed explanations. It is critical as well that students be able to relate events and the feelings of characters to their own lives and experiences and describe their own interpretation of a particular passage.

A strength of the unit is that students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included (p.7) so that students may organize their work and keep it all in one place. A Student Checklist is also included (p.6) so that a record of completed work may be recorded.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include coming of age, the Great Depression (1930's), small town life and community in rural America, family relations, truth, justice and ethics.

A Long Way From Chicago

By Richard Peck

Synopsis

During the Great Depression, Joey and his sister, Mary Alice - two city slickers from Chicago - make their annual summer visit to Grandma Dowdel's sleepy Illinois town. Soon enough they find that it's far from sleepy . . . and Grandma is far from typical. From seeing their first corpse (and he isn't resting easy) to helping Grandma trespass, pinch property, catch the sheriff in his underwear, and feed the hungry - all in one day - Joey and Mary Alice have seven summers they'll never forget. Author Biography

Richard Peck

Richard Peck was born and brought up in Decatur, Illinois, about a three-hour car ride from Chicago. His first writing job was in the United States army in Germany where he was assigned the job of ghost-writing sermons for chaplains.

His four most recent novels are set in the part of the world that the author most likes to celebrate. In Mr. Peck's own words: "Strays Like Us is a story about a girl being fostered in one of those small, old-fashioned towns where it's hard to be a stranger. A Long Way From Chicago and A Year Down Yonder, two books that have changed my life, are set in the farm town where my father grew up. Grandma Dowdel's house is the house where my grandmother lived: a tall jigsaw gothic with lightning rods. My newest novel is Fair Weather in which three farm kids see the future unfolding before them at the Chicago World's Fair of 1893."

Presently Richard lives in Manhattan, New York.

Chapter 1

Shotgun Cheatham's Last Night Above Ground

Before you read the chapter:

Grandma Dowdel, the main character of the novel, is also one of the most memorable people you will probably ever read about. What specific characteristics do you think a character in a novel should possess in order to make him/her really memorable? (Try to come up with at least three characteristics.)

Check out the title of Chapter One. Do you think this is an effective title? Why or why not?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

privy	obituary	prohibit	reprobate	apt
obliged	philanthropist	forage	disperse	reputation

1. I don't think the old man appreciated it when Grandma called him an old _____.
2. I'd be very much _____ if you would come the first time you're called.
3. I read about his death in the _____ column of the local newspaper.

4. On my way out to the _____ late last night, I almost stepped on a garter snake.
5. I have never seen a crowd _____ so quickly as they did last evening when it started to pour rain.
6. I received a bursary for my studies from a local _____.
7. If the rains don't come soon the people around here are going to have to _____ for their food.
8. Be careful not to startle the mare as she is _____ to kick you.
9. Aunt Sally has an unfortunate _____ around here for being rather tight with her money.
10. The police _____ anyone from carrying a concealed weapon on their person.

Questions

1. The first sentence in Chapter One is certainly an attention-grabber, isn't it? What was your own personal reaction to this unusual introduction?

2. Describe the setting of the story in Chapter One.

3. What were two things about staying at Grandma Dowdel's which annoyed Mary Alice?

4. What was there about the death of Shotgun Cheatham which attracted the attention of some of the larger newspapers?

5. What were two reasons offered by Grandma as to why Shotgun probably never rode with Jesse and Frank James?

6. What was ironic about Grandma's statement, "Never trust an ugly woman. She's got a grudge against the world."?

7. Describe how Shotgun really got his name (according to Grandma).

b. How did this story differ from the one she told the reporter about Shotgun?

8. Why do you think Grandma went to all the trouble for Shotgun's wake and funeral?

9. Describe what caused so much of a commotion at Shotgun's wake.

Language Activities

A. As Joey points out in this chapter, Chicago during the 1920's was quite famous for its notorious gangsters. In addition to Al Capone and Bugs Moran, men such as Sam Giancana, Albert Anselmi, Tony Accardo ruled the underworld of America's second largest city. Your task is to investigate a mobster from the 1920's and write a brief report on him/her. This report should contain at least four interesting facts. As a twist to this assignment, you can do a law enforcement official of this era instead (i.e. Eliot Ness).

B. Talk Show

With two or three other students prepare to participate in a television talk show featuring characters from this chapter. Choose an interesting character from the book (it doesn't necessarily have to be Grandma). Prepare about a half-dozen questions to ask and possible answers.
Bonus: Act out your interview in front of your class.

C. A simile is a comparison using the words "like" or "as". An example from Chapter One is "he smelled like a polecat."

What two things are being compared in this example?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your imagination:

a) the delighted squeal of a child

b) an explosion

D. Copy out any three sentences from this chapter and underline the nouns.

E. The word “rock” can be used as a noun or a verb, depending on the sentence. Using your imagination, write sentences to illustrate how this word can be used as both a noun and a verb.

ROCK

Noun
Verb

F. Reword the following expressions from Chapter One in more traditional English.

a) . . . talk the hind leg off a mule
b) . . . Grandma, who was no oil painting herself.
c) . . . which was uphill work
d) he wants to get the horselaugh on us

Extension Activities

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel.

Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first chapter of A Long Way From Chicago. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
