Suggestions and Expectations

This curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on one or two chapters of Bunnicula and is comprised of five of the following different activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Language Activities
- Extension Activities

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities in this unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to

- a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
- b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
- c) compare and contrast two characters;
- d) determine how characters . . . respond to challenges;
- e) drawing inferences from the text;
- f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking. Students will also be expected to provide clear answers to questions and well-constructed explanations. It is critical as well that students be able to relate events and the feelings of characters to their own lives and experiences and describe their own interpretation of a particular passage.

A strength of the unit is that students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included (p.7) so that students may organize their work and keep it all in one place. A Student Checklist is also included (p.6) so that a record of completed work may be recorded.

Synopsis

Bunnicula: A Rabbit-Tale of Mystery is a 1979 children's novel by Deborah and James Howe, the first in his Bunnicula series. Based on a 2007 online poll, the National Education Association named the book one of its "Teachers' Top 100 Books for Children." The series chronicles the adventures of the Monroe family and their pets, Harold the dog, Chester the cat, and Bunnicula the rabbit. The novels are narrated by Harold the family dog.

Before it's too late, Harold the dog and Chester the cat must find out the truth about the newest pet in the Monroe household – a suspicious-looking bunny with unusual habits ... and fangs! (Courtesy of Wikipedia and Simon and Schuster)

Language Activity

A. Many authors enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. Here's an example of an alliteration: "... grouching, grouching, grumbling, gripping about something or other."

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

The sounds of a haunted house.
The sounds of a movie theater.
One from your own imagination.

B. A simile is a comparison using the words "like" or "as". The following is an example of a simile: "My love is like a red, red rose."

What two things are being compared in this example?

Invent two of your own similes comparing two different things using your own imagination:

b)

C. PERSONIFICATION is giving human qualities to something that is not human. The following is an example of personification: "The fire ran wild."

Why do you think personification is a popular literary device used by many authors?

Create your own example of personification.

D. Find at least two examples of each of the eight parts of speech from Chapter One, and list them in the appropriate section of the chart below.
