Suggestions and Expectations

This 72 page curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on two or three chapters of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory and is comprised of four different activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Language and Extension Activities

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking.

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to

- a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
- b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
- c) compare and contrast two characters;
- d) determine how characters . . . respond to challenges;
- e) drawing inferences from the text;
- f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

Students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included as well as a Student Checklist.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include the importance of family, greed, overcoming difficulty, poverty vs wealth, old age, choices (foolish vs. wise), selfishness vs. selflessness.

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

By Roald Dahl

Synopsis

Willie Wonka's famous chocolate factory is opening at last! But only five lucky children will be allowed inside. Augustus Gloop, an enormously fat boy whose hobby is eating; Veruca Salt, a spoiled-rotten brat whose parents are wrapped around her little finger; Violet Beauregarde, a dim-witted gum-chewer with the fastest jaws around; Mike Teavee, a toy pistol-toting gangster-in-training who is obsessed with television; and Charlie Bucket, Our Hero, a boy who is honest and kind, brave and true, and good and ready for the wildest time of his life! Author Biography

Roald Dahl

Few authors of children's books have been as prolific or successful as Roald Dahl (1916-1990). His novels have been read and enjoyed by countless children the world over and include such classics as Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, Danny the Champion of the World, James and the Giant Peach and Matilda. Shortly before his death, the top five selling children's books in Great Britain were all authored by Dahl.

Born to Norwegian immigrants, Roald Dahl hailed from Llandaff, Wales. Despite losing his father when he was only four, Roald claimed to have had a most happy and eventful childhood. Although not a particularly good student, Roald did excel at athletics.

Dahl was married to the famous actress, Patricia Neal, for many years and they had five children together. The couple were, however, divorced after thirty years of marriage. Roald began his writing career as a short story writer, and didn't pen his first children's novel until 1961 – James and the Giant Peach. This was followed by several bestsellers.

Roald Dahl passed away in 1990 at the age of 74. In Great Britain the anniversary of Dahl's birthday on 13 September has become widely celebrated as Roald Dahl Day.

7. Chapter One ends with a literary device known as a cliffhanger. What is a cliffhanger, and why is it a popular device used by many novelists?

Language Activities

A. Chocolate

Chocolate plays a huge role in this novel. As we begin our study it might be useful to learn a little about this marvelous treat. Did you know, for instance, that chocolate is a raw or processed food produced from the seed of the tropical Theobroma cacao tree and has been around for about 3,000 years? Did you know that Europeans sweetened and fattened it by adding refined sugar and milk? Using resources in your school library or on the Internet, research a few basic facts about chocolate. Below record three fascinating facts from your research to share with your classmates.

1.
3.

B. The Good Old Indispensable Adverb!

An adverb is a part of speech defined as a modifier (or helper) of a verb (usually an action word). Often an adverb will end in the letters ly (i.e. slowly). Our novel features a good many creative adverbs.

- ... he would place it carefully in a small wooden box.
→ In this sentence, which verb does carefully modify? _____
- ... taking creamy candy bars out of their pockets and munching them greedily...
→ In this sentence, what verb does greedily modify? _____
- He desperately wanted something more filling...
→ In this sentence the adverb _____ modifies the verb _____

C. Choose ten words from this chapter with two or more syllables. Indicate the syllables by drawing a line between each syllable. Example: good / bye.

D. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter Two is “They were as shriveled as prunes and as bony as skeletons.”

What is being compared in this example?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your imagination:

a) the glare of a television set

b) the crack of a rifle

Bonus: Keep your eye open for another example of a simile as you read the novel. When you find one, remember to come back and enter it here

Extension Activities

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel.

Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first two chapters of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
