Suggestions and Expectations

This 64 page curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on one or two chapters of Flush and is comprised of four different activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Language and Extension Activities

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking.

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to

- a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
- b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
- c) compare and contrast two characters;
- d) determine how characters . . . respond to challenges;
- e) drawing inferences from the text;
- f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

Students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included as well as a Student Checklist.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include the protection of the environment, Florida marine life (i.e. loggerhead turtles, snappers, etc.), family relationships, anger-management, bullying, personal responsibilities.

Synopsis

Bestselling novelist Carl Hiaasen is back with another hysterical mystery adventure for young readers, set in the Florida Keys.

Noah's dad has a little problem with anger control. He tried to stop the Coral Queen casino boat's illegal dumping . . . by sinking the boat. But his bold protest fizzles: within days the casino is back in business, and Noah's dad is behind bars and out of action.

Now Noah is determined to succeed where his father failed. But even though pumping raw sewage into the waters of the Florida Keys is both gross and against the law, turns out it's near impossible to catch the flusher—especially when he's already bamboozled the prosecutors, the local press, and even the Coast Guard.

But Noah's got a few allies. There's his little sister, Abbey, an unreformed childhood biter; Lice Peeking, a half-soused ex-mate of the Coral Queen who is willing to testify . . . for a price; and Shelly, a bighearted bartender with even bigger biceps. [The Publisher]

Author Biography

Carl Hiaasen

Carl Hiaasen was born and raised in Florida, where he still lives with his family. A graduate of the University of Florida, he wrote for The Miami Herald as an investigative reporter. For his journalism and commentary, Hiaasen has received numerous honors. In the early 1980s, he began writing novels with his good friend and a distinguished journalist, the late William D. Montalbano. Together they produced three mystery thrillers -- Powder Burn, Trap Line and A Death in China -- which borrowed heavily from their own reporting experiences.

Tourist Season, published in 1986, was Hiaasen's first solo novel. Since then, Hiaasen has published Skin Tight, Native Tongue and eight national bestsellers -- Strip Tease, Stormy Weather, Lucky You, Sick Puppy, Basket Case, Skinny Dip, Nature Girl and, most recently, Star Island. Hiaasen made his children's book debut with Hoot (2002), which was awarded a Newbery Honor and spent more than two years on the New York Times bestseller lists. For young readers he went on to write Flush (2005), Scat (2009) and Chomp (2012). The film version of Hoot was released in 2006.

Chapter 1

Before you read the chapter:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The main protagonist of Flush is a very likeable boy, Noah, who lives in southern Florida. Think back on some of your favorite characters from novels you have read or movies you’ve seen. What do you think makes for an especially interesting protagonist?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

tendency	appendix	understatement	interfering	insist
bilge	inflatable	skiff	impressive	stable

1. The first thing the ship captain had us do was to get our mops and clean the _____ from the decks.
2. Saying that Bobby Orr was the greatest defenseman ever to play in the NHL is probably an _____.
3. When we visited my grandfather in the hospital the doctor told us that his condition was _____.
4. Jeremy has an unfortunate _____ to speak out in class and get himself in trouble with the teacher.

5. I don't think Mr. Carmen meant to be seen as _____ when he made that suggestion.
6. "I must _____ that you all leave your cell phones at the door," the principal said.
7. As soon as I complained about a pain in my side, my mother knew it must be my _____.
8. The only lifeboat to be found aboard was an _____ raft.
9. The home run that Jenna hit was most _____.
10. "See if you can rent a _____ for us," my uncle suggested. "I would like to try my hand at fishing tomorrow."

Questions

1. How did the dad's attitude about his "crime" compare with the son's?

2. Describe the setting as Chapter One begins.

3. Noah's dad didn't want to be bailed out of jail?      T or F
4. Noah's dad didn't want a lawyer to be brought in on the case.      T or F
5. Explain why Noah's dad sunk Dusty Muleman's boat.

- b. According to Noah, why was this an especially dangerous practice?

6. Abbey was _____ years younger than Noah.
7. Noah's mom and dad (Mr. and Mrs. Underwood) were quite different in personality. In the chart below write one thing which would describe something about each of their personalities.

Mr. Underwood
Mrs. Underwood

8. Why were Mr. Underwood's actions unpopular with the local ship captains?

Language Activities

A. The Florida Keys

A year after Noah's parents married they moved to the Florida Keys. The Keys begin at the southeastern tip of Florida, about 15 miles (24 km) south of Miami, and extend in an arc southwest to Key West, the westernmost of the inhabited islands. Using resources in your school library or on the Internet, investigate additional facts about this fascinating area of the United States. Below record three facts from your research.

B. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter One is “. . . you’ve got to see me locked up like an axe murderer.”

What is the dad comparing himself to in this example?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your imagination:

a) the sound of a motorcycle at a race

--

b) the hoot of a barn owl

--

Bonus: Keep your eye open for another example of a simile as you read the novel. When you find one, remember to come back and enter it here

C. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word PAN can also form the word NAP. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) Read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters.

Each of the words in the left-hand column are found in the first chapter of our novel.

Word	Anagram	Clue
times		Objects.
years		State once more.
keeps		Sly looks.
smart		Small stores.
later		On the ball.
smiled		Lead astray

Extension Activities

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel.

Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first chapter of Flush. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
