Suggestions and Expectations

This curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on two chapters of Hank Zipzer: Niagara Falls, or Does It? and is comprised of five of the following different activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Language Activities
- Extension Activities

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to

- a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
- b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
- c) compare and contrast two characters;
- d) determine how characters . . . respond to challenges;
- e) drawing inferences from the text;
- f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking. Students will also be expected to provide clear answers to questions and well-constructed explanations. It is critical as well that students be able to relate events and the feelings of characters to their own lives and experiences and describe their own interpretation of a particular passage.

A strength of the unit is that students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included (p.7) so that students may organize their work and keep it all in one place. A Student Checklist is also included (p.6) so that a record of completed work may be recorded.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include learning differences, creativity, coping with bullies, accepting responsibilities and the importance of friendship.

Chapters 1-2

Before you read the chapters:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The main character of Hank Zipzer is, of course, Hank, a fourth grader who can't seem to do anything to please his teacher, Ms. Adolf, or Principal Love. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you've seen. What do you think makes for an especially interesting protagonist?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

flexible	determined	protractor	attitude
absorb	concentrate	composition	lanyard

1. Hank had to complete a five paragraph _____ by Friday.
2. Do you think that the sponge will be able to _____ all that water?
3. “I don't like your surly _____, Melissa,” Ms. Adolf shouted angrily.
4. I have never seen so many keys attached to one's _____ before.
5. Louise was _____ to complete the ten kilometer run within an hour.
6. You will need a _____ in order to complete that math problem successfully.
7. I really think you can come up with the correct answer if you _____.
8. In order to be an accomplished gymnast you have to be quite _____.

Questions

1. What is the setting of the story for much of the first two chapters?

2. Describe the crisis that Hank experienced in the opening paragraphs of Chapter One.

3. Think of one appropriate adjective to accurately describe each of the following characters:

Hank Zipzer		Nick McKelty
Frankie Townsend		Principal Love
Ms. Adolf		Frankie's mom

4. Other than Ms. Adolf, the other grade four teacher's name was Mr. _____.

5. The essay topic assigned by Ms. Adolf was _____.

6. Neither Principal Love or Ms. Adolf seem like educators many students would like to have in their school. If given a choice, however, which would you least like to have as a principal or teacher, Principal Love or Ms. Adolf? Why?

7. Why did Hank find the composition assigned by Ms. Adolf to be so daunting? If you were Hank, what might you have done to make sure that you finished the assignment by Monday morning?

Language Activities

A. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first two chapters of Hank Zipzer.

Word	Anagram	Clue
rules		Attracts.
grade		Became extremely angry.
smile		Muddy ooze.
times		Things.
words		An ancient weapon.
drawer		Prize.
shred		Bunches of sheep or cows.

Now find two additional words from the first two chapters which have interesting anagrams to see if you can stump a classmate.

Word	Anagram	Clue

Good to Know ~ Niagara Falls

Niagara Falls is one of the natural wonders of the world, and one of the most popular tourist attractions in North America. Did you know the following about this famous Falls?

- ~ Niagara Falls is located on the border of Ontario, Canada and New York state.
- ~ Niagara Falls is actually 3 falls, Horseshoe Falls, the American Falls and the Bridal Veil Falls.
- ~ The 3 waterfalls combine to produce the highest flow rate of any waterfall on earth.
- ~ It is illegal (and not very smart) to go over the Niagara Falls.
- ~ A number of people have tried it anyway, some survived, some were injured and some killed.
- ~ The first tightrope walker to cross the Niagara Falls did so in 1859.

B. A Quatrain Poem About Niagara Falls.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following quatrain is the first verse of a poem written by Rachelle S and can be found on the Poetry Soup website.

Niagara Falls
a perfect place
full of life
full of grace.

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of A – B – C – B Other rhyming schemes include: AABB, AAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBB, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first two chapters of our novel.

The Quatrain Poem

Now create your own Quatrain Poem. Your poem must follow the format of a quatrain poem described above (and must rhyme).

Title: _____

C. Many authors enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. Here's one such example: from Chapter Two: ... backwards ... blindfolded ... and butt naked.

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

The sound of a waterfall.
The flight of a bumble bee.
Your choice.

D. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter One is: ... and a mole on his cheek that looked like the Statue of Liberty without the torch. ~ What is being compared in this example?

--	--

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your own imagination:

a) the antics of a pair of dolphins

b) a crack of thunder

c) your choice

Extension Activity

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel. Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first two chapters of our novel. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
