Suggestions and Expectations

This 71 page curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on one, two or three (short) chapters of My Side of the Mountain and is comprised of four different activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Language and Extension Activities

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking.

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to

- a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
- b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
- c) compare and contrast two characters;
- d) determine how characters . . . respond to challenges;
- e) drawing inferences from the text;
- f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

Students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included as well as a Student Checklist.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include the wilderness, perseverance, personal responsibility, determination, survival, and communing with nature.

My Side of the Mountain

By Jean Craighead George

Synopsis

Terribly unhappy in his family's crowded New York City apartment, Sam Gribley runs away to the solitude and danger of the Catskill Mountains, where he finds a side of himself he never knew. With only a penknife, a ball of cord, forty dollars, and some flint and steel, he intends to survive on his own. Sam learns about courage, danger, and independence during his year in the wilderness, a year that changes his life forever. [The Publisher]

Author Biography

Jean Craighead George

Jean Craighead George was born in a family of naturalists. On weekends they camped in the woods near their Washington, D.C. home, climbed trees to study owls, gathered edible plants and made fish hooks from twigs. In third grade she began writing and hasn't stopped yet. She has written over 100 books.

Her book, Julie of the Wolves won the prestigious Newbery Medal. My Side of the Mountain, was a 1960 Newbery Honor Book. She has also received 20 other awards.

She attended Penn State University graduating with a degree in Science/Literature. In the 1940s she was a reporter for The Washington Post and a member of the White House Press Corps. After her children were born she returned to her love of nature and brought owls, robins, mink, sea gulls, tarantulas, 173 wild animals into their home and backyard. These became characters in her books.

Her children, Craig and Luke are now environmental scientists and Twig writes children's books, too. Jean is still travelling and coming home to write.

Name: _____

My Side of the Mountain

By Jean Craighead George

I Hole Up in a Snowstorm I Get Started on This Venture

Before you read the chapters:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The main protagonist of My Side of the Mountain is a very enterprising and courageous boy, Sam Gibley, who decides to spend a year by himself in the wilds of the Catskill Mountains. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you’ve seen. What do you think makes for an especially interesting protagonist?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

inspired	misstep	folly	tinder
departure	congregate	emphatic	exhibited

1. John’s butterfly collection will be _____ at the Community Hall .
2. Everyone in the nursing home thought it was _____ for Marjorie to go bowling so soon after her surgery.
3. I really felt _____ after hearing the astronaut’s speech.
4. The crowd began to _____ in front of the drug store.
5. Mrs. Henderson was quite _____ when she told the class to be quiet.
6. Sam found some _____ under the stump which he used to start the fire.
7. The only _____ made by the sheriff was taking the suspect at his word.
8. Her _____ was accompanied with a lot of fanfare.

Questions

1. Describe Sam's new winter home. Please include at least three details.

1
3

2. Describe the setting of the first chapter.

3. On what date does the novel begin?

--

4. What was Sam's main worry during the snowstorm?

5. Sam's trained falcon was named _____.

6. Sam was originally from the city of _____ where he had lived with his parents, four brothers and _____ sisters.

7. Why was that particular spot in the Catskill Mountains especially important to Sam and his family?

8. What were the only items that Sam brought with him to the Catskills?

9. What had been Sam's dad's attitude about him leaving for the wilderness by himself? How do you think his mother must have felt about his decision?

10. What was Sam's biggest challenge in the wilderness? How was this problem resolved?

11. Using a _____ for bait, Sam caught a kind of fish called a _____.

Language Activities

A. Personification is giving human qualities to something that is not human. Here is an example from Chapter 2: It was a clear athletic stream that rushed and ran and jumped and splashed. In this sentence the stream is described as athletic - and it runs and jumps, attributes usually given to a person.

a) Why do you think personification is a literary device used by many authors?

b) Create your own example of personification.

c) Bonus: Keep your eyes open for another example of personification. When you find one, come back to this page and record it below.

--

B. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word PAN can also form the word NAP. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

- read the clue in the right-hand column.
- Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters.

Each of the words in the left-hand column are found in the first two chapters of our novel.

Word	Anagram	Clue
aspen		The glass in windows.
blows		Containers for soup.
moans		Someone who works with stone.
trout		A person who helps a student learn.
stream		A slave-owner.
means		Horse hair.

C. The Applewhites seem to have an unconventional attitude toward education. Eliminate the following letters from the puzzle to reveal the secret message which was written by the great naturalist, Henry David Thoreau: Z, X, Q, P, V, B

Z	I	T	X	I	S	Z	N	O	T	Q	B	X	P	Q	Z	B	P	X	B
V	X	P	B	Z	W	H	A	T	X	Y	O	U	Q	X	P	V	Q	B	Z
L	O	O	K	B	A	T	Z	T	H	A	T	Z	V	P	Q	X	B	V	Q
B	P	Z	V	B	P	X	V	B	Z	M	A	T	T	E	R	S	B	Q	X
Z	P	V	I	T	Q	I	S	Q	P	Z	Q	P	X	Q	V	Z	Q	P	B
B	Q	X	Q	P	X	B	P	W	H	A	T	Z	Q	V	B	Q	V	X	P
