Suggestions and Expectations

This 73 page curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on one or two chapters of Old Yeller and is comprised of four different activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Language and Extension Activities

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking.

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to

- a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
- b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
- c) compare and contrast two characters;
- d) determine how characters . . . respond to challenges;
- e) drawing inferences from the text;
- f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

Students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included as well as a Student Checklist.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include pioneer life, farming and agriculture, courage and sacrifice, the importance of family, perseverance, overcoming difficulty.

Old Yeller

By Fred Gipson

Synopsis

The stray dog was ugly, and a thieving rascal, too. But he sure was clever, and a smart dog could be a big help on the wild Texas frontier, especially with Papa away on a long cattle drive up to Abilene.

Strong and courageous, Old Yeller proved that he could protect Travis's family from any sort of danger. But can Travis do the same for Old Yeller? [The Publisher]

Author Biography

Fred Gipson

Frederick Benjamin "Fred" Gipson (February 7, 1908 – August 14, 1973) was an American author. He is best known for writing the 1956 novel Old Yeller, which became a popular 1957 Walt Disney film. Gipson was born on a farm near Mason in the Texas Hill Country, the son of Beck Gipson and Emma Deishler. After working at a variety of farming and ranching jobs, he enrolled in 1933 at the University of Texas at Austin. There he wrote for the Daily Texan and The Ranger, but he left school before graduating to become a newspaper journalist.

In the 1940s, Gipson began writing short stories with a western theme which proved to be prototypes for his longer works of fiction that followed. In 1946, his first full-length book, The Fabulous Empire: Colonel Zack Miller's Story, was published. Hound-Dog Man in 1947 established Gipson's reputation when it became a Doubleday Book-of-the-Month Club selection and sold over 250,000 copies in its first year of publication and later made into a film in 1959. His additional works included The Home Place (later filmed as Return of the Texan, a 1962 Western starring Dale Robertson and Joanne Dru), Big Bend: A Homesteader's Story, Cowhand: The Story of a Working Cowboy, The Trail-Driving Rooster and Recollection Creek.

Language Activities

A. What's that you say?

The characters in Old Yeller use some very unique expressions. Put each of the following expressions in your own words (you may have to check the context to be sure):

| | |
|--|--|
| he skinned out | |
| I wasn't to be trifled with | |
| Having a tight tail-holt on the world | |
| I nearly dropped him in his tracks | |

B. Alliteration

Authors often enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. An example from Chapter One is “. . . he was howling his head off...”

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

| | |
|-------------------------------|--|
| The baying of a hound dog | |
| | |
| The peep of a cardinal | |
| | |
| From your imagination | |
| | |

C. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word PAN can also form the word NAP. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

- a) read the clue in the right-hand column.
- b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters.

Each of the words in the left-hand column are found in the first chapter of our novel.

| Word | Anagram | Clue |
|---------|---------|-------------------|
| bread | | Removed clothing. |
| drive | | Deep-sea ____. |
| worse | | Cursed. |
| horse | | Seaside. |
| bears | | Sword. |
| support | | Daze. |

Extension Activities

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel.

Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first chapter of Old Yeller. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
