By Christopher Paul Curtis

Synopsis

Twelve-year-old Charlie is down on his luck: His dad just died, the share crops are dry, and Cap'n Buck — the most fearsome man in Possum Moan, South Carolina — has come to collect a debt. Fearing for his life, Charlie strikes a deal with Cap'n Buck and agrees to track down some thieves. It's not too bad of a bargain for Charlie... until he comes face-to-face with the fugitives and discovers that they escaped slavery years ago and have been living free in Detroit. Torn between his guilty conscience and his survival instinct, Charlie needs to figure out his next move — and soon. It's only a matter of time before Cap'n Buck catches on... Chapters 1-2

Before you read the chapters:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The main character of The Journey of Little Charlie is twelve-year-old Little Charlie Bobo, who lives just outside of Possum Moan, South Carolina, in the year 1858. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you’ve seen. Who would you say is your favorite character? Why did you select this character?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

dour	contraption	cavorted	vexed
commenced	dusk	pitiful	antics

1. We failed to realize how _____ Miss Jameson would get on account of our joke.
2. Wyatt Earp has been described as a very serious, _____ man.
3. The _____ of the children proved to be too much for Grandma's nerves.
4. The construction workers _____ each day promptly at nine o'clock.
5. When the puppy stepped on the thorn he let out the most _____ yelp.
6. I doubt if that sorry _____ can do more than five miles per hour.

5. What do you think happened to the three pups?

6. Describe the tragic event that caused Pap's death.

7. How did the events following Pap's death demonstrate Little Charlie's great physical strength?

8. Describe Charlie's mother's unusual reaction to her husband's death.

Language Activities

A. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first two chapters of The Journey of Little Charlie.

Word	Anagram	Clue
closer		Usually derived from wood tar. Used as a disinfectant.
never		Firmness or courage.
gash		Witches or sorceresses.
faster		An action of a fighter plane.
table		A sheep makes this sound.
riled		A lazy person.
birds		___ and drabs.

B. Cinquain Poems

A Cinquain poem has five lines and most often does not rhyme. Write two Cinquain poems describing two of the characters from The Journey of Little Charlie using what you know about them so far. With your teacher's permission you may wish to collaborate with a colleague in the creation of these poems.

Line 1 is one word. Line 2 is two words. Line 3 is three words. Line 4 is four words. Line five is one word.	Santa Saint Nick Long white beard Christmas Eve present-giver Jolly

C. George Washington

Little Charlie's Ma seems to have a real connection with America's first president, George Washington. Twice in the first chapter his name comes up with regard to Little Charlie's mother. She first mentions that George Washington is rich, even though by this time he has been dead for almost 60 years, and secondly she insinuates that the former president was a cheapskate. Using resources in your school library or on the Internet, research three interesting facts about this great man and record them below.

D. Personification is giving human qualities to something that is not human. The following is an example taken from Chapter Two: I seent where time goes from moving at the reg'lar pace to when it slides 'long on greased locomotive rails.

Describe how time is personified in this example.

Create your own example of personification.

As you continue to read through the novel be on the lookout for other examples of this literary device. If you should find one, come back to this question and enter it below.

Extension Activity

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel. Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first four chapters of our novel. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
