Suggestions and Expectations

This curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on several individual sections of The One and Only Ivan and is comprised of five of the following different activities:

- Before You Read
- · Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Language Activities
- Extension Activities

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to:

- a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
- b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
- c) compare and contrast two characters;
- d) determine how characters ... respond to challenges;
- e) drawing inferences from the text;
- f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking. Students will also be expected to provide clear answers to questions and well-constructed explanations. It is critical as well that students be able to relate events and the feelings of characters to their own lives and experiences and describe their own interpretation of a particular passage.

A strength of the unit is that students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included (p.7) so that students may organize their work and keep it all in one place. A Student Checklist is also included (p.6) so that a record of completed work may be recorded.

Synopsis

Ivan is an easygoing gorilla. Living at the Exit 8 Big Top Mall and Video Arcade, he has grown accustomed to humans watching him through the glass walls of his domain. He rarely misses his life in the jungle. Instead, he passes the time quietly and thinks about art.

Then he meets Ruby, a baby elephant taken from her family, and she makes Ivan see their home – and his own art – through new eyes. When Ruby arrives, change comes with her, and it's up to Ivan to make it a change for the better. (The Publisher – Harper Collins)

Hello (Pg 1) - Stella (Pg 29)

Before you read the chapter:

Briefly predict what you believe the plot-line of The One and Only Ivan will be about.

Vocabulary:

Synonyms are words with similar meanings. Using the context of the sentences below, think of an appropriate synonym for the underlined words in each sentence.

- 1. Humans waste words. They toss them like banana peels and leave them to rot.
- 2. Gorillas are as patient as stones. Humans, not so much.
- 3. I'm mightier than any human, four hundred pounds of pure power. My body looks made for battle. My arms, outstretched, span taller than the tallest human.
- 4. Hello. Mack says that when he answers the thrilling telephone.
- 5. The freeway billboard has a drawing of Mack in his clown clothes and Stella on her hind legs and an angry animal with fierce eyes and unkempt hair.

- 6. I used to have a neighbor, a sleek and thoughtful seal, who could balance a ball on her nose from dawn till dusk.
- 7. Humans are clever indeed. They spin pink clouds you can eat. They build domains with flat waterfalls. But they are lousy hunters.
- 8. Here in my domain, I do not have much to do. You can only throw so many me-balls at humans before you get bored.

1. Describe the setting of the story as Section One begins.
2. What particular species of gorilla is Ivan?
3. According to Ivan, why do gorilla's beat their chests?
4. What does Ivan enjoy drawing?
5. What happened to the large bull elephant that once performed at the circus?

A. There are many writers that enjoy using alliteration – a literary device is where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. Here's an example of an alliteration: "grousing, grouching, grumbling, griping about something or other."

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

The sounds of Ivan the gorilla.
The sounds of Stella the elephant.
The sound of nature (think of an appropriate setting)
B. A simile is a comparison using section: "Humans waste words. The What two things are being comp	ry toss them l	ike banana p
Invent three of your own simile	s comparing	two different	things from	your own	imagination:
a) b) c)

C. Come One, Come All!

Using resources from your school library or the Internet write a brief report on a famous circus act of your own choosing. Your report should include locations, dates, performers, and any other information that you might find interesting.

Fascinating Facts

In the section 'How I Look' Ivan implied that humans are part of the greater ape family tree. However, contrary to this popular belief, there is actually no credible scientific evidence to support the theory that humans are descended from primates. Columnist Albert Fleischmann once wrote; "The Darwinian theory of descent has not a single fact to confirm it in the realm of nature. It is not the result of scientific research, but purely the product of imagination."

Extension Activity

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel.

Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in this section of our novel. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
