Language Activities

A. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word PAN can also form the word NAP. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

- read the clue in the right-hand column.
- Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters.

The words in the left-hand column are found in Chapter 1 of our novel.

Word	Anagram	Clue
acres		Worries.
time		A piece of news or information.
taped		Highly skilled; expert.
later		Quick to perceive and act.
slept		Animal skins.
seats		A plus. An item of value owned.

B. Personification is giving human qualities to something that is not human. In Chapter One when describing the house, the author states, "... but just behind the house loomed the forest – its branches hanging over the little roof as if the trees were preparing to swallow the house whole." In this sentence the forest is given human characteristics (it seems as if it will devour the little house).

- Why do you think personification is a literary device used by many authors?

- Create your own example of personification.
