Synopsis

Ben Coffin knows from foster care that people can leave you without a good-bye. That’s why he prefers to hide out in the Coney Island library with his sci-fi novels, until he rescues an abandoned dog from the alley next door. Scruffy little Flip introduces Ben to fellow book lover Halley—yes, like the comet. Some call her Rainbow Girl for her crazy-colored clothes, but for Ben it’s her laugh, pure magic, the kind that makes you smile away the stormiest day. Rainbow Girl convinces “Sci-Fi Boy” to write a novel with her. What begins as a time-travel story ends up a mystery, one that has haunted Ben for as long as he can remember: If friendship is the greatest treasure of all, why can’t it last forever? Paul Griffin’s middle-grade debut will warm your heart as much as it breaks it with the story of two unforgettable kids at the crossroads of love and loss, helping each other find their way home. ## Author Biography

Paul Griffin

After graduating Dartmouth College with a BA in Film Studies, I was well-prepared to find work as a butler and bartender, a cook and an EMT, a dog trainer, a driver. I washed dishes with Vin Diesel. I made movies and wrote short stories and plays, scripts and, yes, novels that more often than not featured the street mutts that had a habit of wiggling their way into whatever apartment I was living in at the time. I worked construction, loaded trucks, tutored and taught. The hardest and best work was the teaching. These days I work with organizations like Literacy for Incarcerated Teens and Behind the Book. Seeing young people learn how to tell their life stories in ways that might bring them a step closer to realizing their dreams - that's like finding treasure. I live with my family, human and canine, in New York City, which is chock-full of stories, not to mention characters. <https://www.paulgriffinstories.com/more-info>

Chapters 1-5

Before you read the chapter:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The main character of When Friendship Followed Me Home is Ben Coffin, whose world is changed forever when a scruffy little mutt follows him home one memorable day. It is very important for the main character of a story to be appealing in some way and be able to hold the reader's interest. What is one book (or movie) you have read or seen which features an unforgettable protagonist? What was it about this character that made him/her so memorable?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

inalienable	caress	aggravation	spontaneous
synchronize	mediocre	enchanted	varmint

1. The old magician's spell rendered the forest _____ from that day forward.
2. What kind of loathsome _____ would destroy one's garden like that?
3. Freedom of expression is every citizen's _____ right.

Questions

1. What is the setting of the story at the beginning of Chapter One?

2. What did you learn about Ben's personality from his encounter with Damon Rayburn?

3. Chucky seems to be quite an interesting friend for Ben. Think of one thing which would be good about having a friend like Chucky and one thing which would not be so good.

4. What evidence is there in these first few chapters indicating that Ben is quite smart.

5. What was Rhonda's impression of Ben?

6. How did Mrs. Lorentz feel about Ben? What evidence do you have for this? Why do you think she felt this way about him?

7. What was Ben's mom planning for next year?

8. Why would even the dumbest guy not mess with a diva?

9. Describe the strategy Ben used to gain the dog's trust.

10. What was Ben's mom trying to teach him when she said, "Hiking uphill is the best part of the trip?"

11. Describe Ben's mom response when Ben asked if he could keep the dog. Was this surprising to you? Why or why not?

Language Activities

A. Personification is giving human qualities to something that is not human. The following is an example from Chapter Five: My lungs were cool around dogs...

Describe how Ben's lungs are personified in this sentence.

Create your own example of personification.

As you continue to read through the novel be on the lookout for other examples of this literary device. If you should find one, come back to this question and enter it below.

B. Many authors enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. Here is such an example from Chapter Five: She was sixty-seven years old.

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

The sound of a dog.
The beach.
Your choice.

C. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

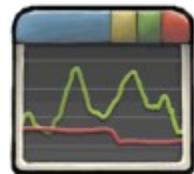

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first five chapters of When Friendship Followed Me Home.

Word	Anagram	Clue
breath		Loves the tub.
resting		Wasp.
snapped		Attaches.
seven		Couldn't possibly be odds.
closer		Used as a disinfectant.
past		Disturbance.
stack		Pins.

D. Cliffhanger

Chapter Three contains an important literary device called a cliffhanger. A cliffhanger usually occurs at the end of a chapter when the author leaves the reader in suspense. How is this true in Chapter Three? Why do you think the author ended the chapter this way?
