Suggestions and Expectations

This 60 page curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on two chapters of The Black Pearl and is comprised of four different activities:

• Before You Read
• Vocabulary Building
• Comprehension Questions
• Language and Extension Activities

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking.

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to
a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
c) compare and contrast two characters;
d) determine how characters … respond to challenges;
e) drawing inferences from the text;
f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

Students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included as well as a Student Checklist.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include the struggle between good and evil, courage, personal initiative, overcoming greed and selfishness; the maturation process (personal growth), overcoming difficulty.

Synopsis

Ramon Salazar knows that someday he will become a partner with his father, pearling in the waters off Baja California. But at sixteen, he’s more interested in pearling alone. Ramon wants to find the great pearl – the magnificent Pearl of Heaven – for with it comes untold riches.

But what Ramon doesn’t realize is that the pearl brings more than riches. It brings danger, jealousy, and even death.

Ramon must ask himself: How much is the pearl really worth? [The Publisher]

The Black Pearl

By Scott O’Dell

Name: ______________________________
Before you read the chapter:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The protagonist of The Black Pearl is a young boy, Ramón Salazar, who goes through a number of exciting adventures as the story unfolds. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you’ve seen. What do you think makes for an especially interesting protagonist?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

7. The kind priest offered a final ______________ before seeing the soldiers off to battle.

8. The family found the old woman’s ______________ to be very moving.

9. Do you think Sally will receive her parents’ _____________ to attend the party?

10. Napoleon was ______________ to a remote island after losing the battle.

Questions

1. What is the setting of Chapter One?

2. How does Ramón describe the Manta Diablo?

Good to Know

An adult manta ray can typically reach a width of 23 feet (7 meters) and can weigh up to 3000 pounds (1350 kg). They have a distinctive body shape with triangular ‘wings’ and paddle-like lobes extending in front of their mouths. They are generally dark on the upper surfaces with pale undersides. They have a large mouth with 18 rows of teeth.

3. Why did Ramón think his grandfather was the most learned man in their town?

4. Describe the role that Father Linares played with regard to the Manta Diablo.
5. Foreshadowing is a literary device in which the author provides hints as to upcoming events. Give an example of foreshadowing from Chapter One.

6. Ramón’s father’s name was ________________ ________________.

7. How did Ramón’s father earn a living?

8. As Chapter Two opens we find out that it is the happiest day of Ramón’s life. Why was this the case?

9. Describe how Ramón’s father tested him when he was grading the pearls.

10. Why do you think it was so important for Ramón to go fishing with his dad?
A. The Manta Diablo

Using your imagination and the description of the Manta Diablo in Chapter One, draw your own concept of this fearsome creature in the box below.

B. Choose ten words from this chapter with two or more syllables. Indicate the syllables by drawing a line between each syllable. Example: good / bye.
C. How’s Your Spanish?

In the first few chapters of the novel we meet a number of Spanish words. Match each Spanish word in the left column with the correct English translation on the right.

D. Personification is giving human qualities to something that is not human. In Chapter Two the author writes, Tomorrow it may stand on end under the lash of a chubasco. In this sentence the chubasco (storm) lashes.

a) Why do you think personification is a literary device used by many authors?

b) Create your own example of personification.
Extension Activity

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel.

Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first two chapters of The Black Pearl. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
