Diary of a Wimpy Kid

The Last Straw

Suggestions and Expectations

This curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on a part of a chapter (Month) of Diary of a Wimpy Kid: The Last Straw and is comprised of four different activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Activities

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to

- a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
- b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
- c) compare and contrast two characters;
- d) determine how characters . . . respond to challenges;
- e) drawing inferences from the text;
- f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking. Students will also be expected to provide clear answers to questions and well-constructed explanations. It is critical as well that students be able to relate events and the feelings of characters to their own lives and experiences and describe their own interpretation of a particular passage.

A strength of the unit is that students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included (p.7) so that students may organize their work and keep it all in one place. A Student Checklist is also included (p.6) so that a record of completed work may be recorded.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include humor, growing up, family (living up to the expectations of one's parents), making difficult choices, friendship and loyalty, peer pressure and conformity

Diary of a Wimpy Kid

The Last Straw

Synopsis

The third book in this genre-busting series is certain to enlarge Kinney's presence on the bestseller lists, where the previous titles have taken up residence for the past two years. Kinney's spot-on humor and winning formula of deadpan text set against cartoons are back in full force. This time, Greg starts off on New Year's Day (he resolves to "help other people improve," telling his mother, "I think you should work on chewing your potato chips more quietly") and ends with summer vacation. As he fends off his father's attempts to make him more of a man (the threat of military school looms), Greg's hapless adventures include handing out anonymous valentines expressing his true feelings ("Dear James, You smell"), attempting to impress his classmate Holly and single-handedly wrecking his soccer team's perfect season. Kinney allows himself some insider humor as well, with Greg noting the "racket" children's book authors have going. "All you have to do is make up a character with a snappy name, and then make sure the character learns a lesson at the end of the book." Greg, self-centered as ever, may be the exception proving that rule. Ages 8–12.

Author Biography

Jeff Kinney

Jeffrey Patrick Kinney was born in College Park, Maryland in 1971. Jeff Kinney is a full-time online game designer, as well as the author of the immensely popular Wimpy Kid books. Jeff also developed the Poptropica website for kids (<http://www.poptropica.com/>)

Jeff Kinney attended the University of Maryland at College Park in the early 1990s. It was here that he developed the comic strip Igdoof for the college newspaper. Although he was unsuccessful in getting his comic strip syndicated, his writing career got off to a tremendous start with the publication of Diary of a Wimpy Kid in 2007. Since then he has had three additional novels in the series published as well as a do-it-yourself book.

In 2009 Kinney was named one of Time magazine's 100 "Most Influential People".

Language Activities

A. Shel Silverstein

Despite the fact that Greg think Shel Silverstein's picture makes him look like a burglar or pirate, he was a tremendously gifted poet - loved by children and adults around the world. Using resources in your school or public library or on the Internet, investigate the life and career of this renowned poet. Find five interesting facts about him to share with your colleagues.

Bonus: find a copy of your favorite Silverstein poem to share. [My favorite is called Boa Constrictor.]

*Oh, I'm being eaten
By a boa constrictor,
A boa constrictor,
A boa constrictor,
I'm being eaten by a boa constrictor,
And I don't like it--one bit.
Well, what do you know?
It's nibblin' my toe.
Oh, gee,
It's up to my knee.
Oh my,
It's up to my thigh.
Oh, fiddle,
It's up to my middle.
Oh, heck,
It's up to my neck.
Oh, dread,
It's upmmmmmmmmmmffffffffff . . .*

B. Choose ten words from this section with two or more syllables. Indicate the syllables by drawing a line between each syllable. Example: use / less.
