Suggestions and Expectations

This curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on one chapter of Encyclopedia Brown and is comprised of five of the following different activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Language Activities
- Extension Activities

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to:

a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
c) compare and contrast two characters;
d) determine how characters … respond to challenges;
e) drawing inferences from the text;
f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking. Students will also be expected to provide clear answers to questions and well-constructed explanations. It is critical as well that students be able to relate events and the feelings of characters to their own lives and experiences and describe their own interpretation of a particular passage.

A strength of the unit is that students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included (p.7) so that students may organize their work and keep it all in one place. A Student Checklist is also included (p.6) so that a record of completed work may be recorded.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include friendship, perseverance, and mystery stories.

Boy Detective

By Donald J. Sobol

Name: __________________________
Before you read the chapter:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The main character of Encyclopedia Brown is, of course, Encyclopedia Brown, Boy Detective. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you’ve seen. What do you think makes for an especially interesting protagonist?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

1. Before watching the movie Gertie made sure that all her guests were ____________.
2. The police chief suggested that they keep the suspect under ____________ for a week.
3. The boys felt a bit frightened when they entered the ____________ apartment building.
4. “We are going to assign our best ____________ to this case,” the mayor announced.
5. It's a real ____________ as to how the dog got into the refrigerator.
6. The best ____________ I can give you is to stay away from her altogether.
7. Senator Greenfield has always been a ____________ dresser.
8. I'm sure that Light Fingered Eddie was the ____________ behind the string of bank robberies.
Questions

1. What is the setting of the story for much of the first chapter?

2. Encyclopedia's real first name was ____________.

3. Investigate: Encyclopedia impressed Mrs. Conway by knowing the name of the Swiss River beginning with the letter A. Using resources in your school library or on the Internet research the length of the Aar (or Aare) river and the approximate number of hydroelectric dams on the river.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

4. What important job did Encyclopedia Brown's father have?

5. The author states that no one knew that a boy was the mastermind behind the town's police force. Why do you think Encyclopedia's father didn't let everyone know that his son was such a great detective?

6. How did Encyclopedia know that Natty Nat had not robbed The Men's Shop?

7. Why did Mr. Dillon blame the robbery on Natty Nat?
Language Activities

A. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first chapter of Encyclopedia Brown.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Now find two additional words from the first chapter which have interesting anagrams to see if you can stump a classmate.

Good to Know ~ The World's Greatest Detective

Although he was a fictional character created by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, Sherlock Holmes has been referred to by many as the World's Greatest Detective. Sherlock Holmes was known for his logical conclusions in arriving at solutions for many of his challenging cases as well as his uncanny ability to adapt a number of clever and convincing disguises. Dr. Doyle wrote these stories beginning in 1891. Since that time many of his stories have been made into successful movies and television programs.
B. Even Shakespeare liked to write Quatrain Poems.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following famous quatrain was written by the great writer, William Shakespeare, and is taken from Sonnet 18.

Shall I compare thee to a summer's day?
Thou art more lovely and more temperate:
Rough winds do shake the darling buds of May,
And summer's lease hath all too short a date.

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of A – B – A – B. Other rhyming schemes include: AABB, AAAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBB, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first chapter of our novel.

C. Many authors enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. Here’s one such example: from Chapter One: … the man the newspapers call Natty Nat.

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>The sound of a horse.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The flight of a bumblebee.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Your choice.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

D. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter One is: He [Encyclopedia Brown] was like a complete library.

~ What is being compared in this example?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your own imagination:

a) a thick book (like a real encyclopedia)

b) the sound of rain on a tent roof

c) your choice
Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel. Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first chapter of our novel. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
