Suggestions and Expectations

This curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on one or 2 chapters of George's Marvelous Medicine and is comprised of five different activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Language Activities
- Extension Activities

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to

a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;

b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;

c) compare and contrast two characters;

d) determine how characters … respond to challenges;

e) drawing inferences from the text;

f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking. Students will also be expected to provide clear answers to questions and well-constructed explanations. It is critical as well that students be able to relate events and the feelings of characters to their own lives and experiences and describe their own interpretation of a particular passage.

A strength of the unit is that students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included (p.7) so that students may organize their work and keep it all in one place. A Student Checklist is also included (p.6) so that a record of completed work may be recorded.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include growing up, perseverance when facing difficult circumstances, families and family relationships, putting right to a wrong.

Author Biography

Roald Dahl

Few authors of children’s books have been as prolific or successful as Roald Dahl (1916-1990). His novels have been read and enjoyed by countless children the world over and include such classics as Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, Danny the Champion of the World, James and the Giant Peach and George's Marvelous Medicine. Shortly before his death, the top five selling children’s books in Great Britain were all authored by Dahl.

Born to Norwegian immigrants, Roald Dahl hailed from Llandaff, Wales. Despite losing his father when he was only four, Roald claimed to have had a most happy and eventful childhood. Although not a particularly good student, Roald did excel at athletics.

Dahl was married to the famous actress, Patricia Neal, for many years and they had five children together. The couple were, however, divorced after thirty years of marriage. Roald began his writing career as a short story writer, and didn’t pen his first children’s novel until 1961 – James and Giant Peach. This was followed by several more bestsellers.

Roald Dahl passed away in 1990 at the age of 74. In Great Britain the anniversary of Dahl's birthday on 13 September has become widely celebrated as Roald Dahl Day.

1. Jonathan was so startled when his brother jumped out of the closet that his eyes almost popped out of their ______________.

2. The ______________ is a small, silvery food fish found off the coast of California.

3. The crab used its little ______________ to inflict some pain on Jeremy's exposed thumb.

4. "I think it is absolutely ______________ that you can't find a buyer for your bike," Sara said disgustedly.

5. Mrs. Calamine is always ______________ about something.
6. I decided that after finding an __________ in my soup, I would never eat at that restaurant again.

7. What Sydney Crosby can do with a hockey puck is sheer _______________.

8. The birth of a baby is considered a most ___________ event.

Questions

1. Describe the setting of the story as Chapter One begins.

   [Blank space for answer]

2. After reading this chapter, what four adjectives do you think would best describe George's grandma's personality?

   [Blank space for answer]

3. What opinion did George have of his grandmother? Support your answer with proof from the story.

   [Blank space for answer]

4. When was the only time that George's grandmother ordered him around? Why do you think this was the case?

   [Blank space for answer]
5. What was Grandma's secret to ensuring that George stopped growing so fast?

6. What disturbing information did Grandma convey to George near the conclusion of this chapter? Why was this so upsetting to George?

Language Activity

A. The author seems to enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. An example from this chapter is: “. . . grousing, grouching, grumbling, griping about something or other.”

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>The screech of a raven</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The roar of a piece of farm machinery (i.e. tractor)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>From your imagination</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
B. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter One is “... a small puckered-up mouth like a dog’s bottom.”

What two things are being compared in this example?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your imagination:

a) your view of a rainbow after a sun shower

b) a woman screaming after seeing a mouse

C. Positively Revolting!!

Grandma refers to a number of creatures in this chapter in a positive manner. They include slugs, beetles, earwigs and caterpillars. Your task is to make it possible for your classroom colleagues to become more familiar with one of these intriguing creatures. [With your teacher’s approval you may choose an alternative creature for this assignment, as long as it is equally disgusting.]

Create an information card featuring one of these creatures. Your card will resemble a sports card (i.e. baseball, hockey...) The front of the card will feature an appropriate picture and the back at least four fascinating facts you have researched from sources in your school library or on the Internet.
Extension Activity

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel.

Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first chapter of George’s Marvelous Medicine. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
