Synopsis

In 1914, Joey, a beautiful bay-red foal with a distinctive cross on his nose, is sold to the army and thrust into the midst of the war on the Western Front. With his officer, he charges toward the enemy, witnessing the horror of the battles in France. But even in the desolation of the trenches, Joey's courage touches the soldiers around him and he is able to find warmth and hope. But his heart aches for Albert, the farmer's son he left behind. Will he ever see his true master again?

Author Biography

Michael Morpurgo is, in his own words, “oldish, married with three children, and a grandfather six times over.” Born in 1943, he attended schools in London, Sussex and Canterbury England (one at least of which was horrible enough to inspire him to describe it obliquely in The Butterfly Lion). He went on to London University to study English and French, followed by a step into the teaching profession and a job in a primary school in Kent. It was there that he discovered what he wanted to do.

“We had to read the children a story every day and my lot were bored by the book I was reading. I decided I had to do something and told them the kind of story I used to tell my kids – it was like a soap opera, and they focused on it. I could see there was magic in it for them, and realized there was magic in it for me.”

In 1976 Michael and his wife, Clare, started the charity Farms For City Children, which aims to relieve the poverty of experience of young children from inner city and urban areas by providing them with a week in which they work actively and purposefully on farms in the heart of the countryside. War Horse

By Michael Morpurgo

Name: ___________________________
Before you read the chapter:

The protagonist in most novel features the main character or “good guy”. The protagonist of War Horse is quite different than most novels – a horse, Joey. Why might this be an especially difficult challenge for a novelist?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

9. The organization passed a _____________ banning firearms at all meetings.
10. Joey had an _____________ sense of compassion when it came to horses.
Questions

1. The first paragraph of Chapter One is certainly an attention-grabber, isn't it? What phrase in this paragraph first lets the reader know that the narrator is probably not a person?

2. Describe the setting of the story for most of Chapter One.

3. What specific event separated the colt from its mother?

4. In Chapter One Joey and the readers are introduced to three new characters, Albert, his father and his mother. For each of these characters write a brief description of his/her personality from what we know of them so far.

<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Albert's Mother</td>

</tr>
</tbody>

5. It is evident that Albert is very pleased that his father purchased Joey. At one point in Chapter One he tells his mother that it was “the best thing he ever did.” Reread Albert’s mother’s response to this statement. What does the lack of conviction in her answer reveal about her true feelings regarding her husband?
6. Investigate: The Torridge River in County Devon (mentioned in Chapter Two) was the setting of an award-winning animal story written by Henry Williamson. Using resources in your school library or on the Internet, find out the name of this famous novel. (Check out some interesting Youtube clips from the movie.)

7. What challenge did Albert’s dad present to Albert in Chapter Two, and what would be the consequence of Albert failing to achieve what his father asked?

8. What two excuses did Albert’s mother suggest as the cause of her husband’s alcoholism?

9. Foreshadowing is a literary device defined as a hint or clue provided by the writer to tip the reader as to what is to come later in the story. How might the conclusion of Chapter Two be considered an example of this? What do you think is going to happen in Chapter Three?
A. Life Stages and Horse Terms

Investigate, then draw a line to match each term with the definition on the left.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Term</th>
<th>Definition</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>Stallion</td>
<td>Female horse 4 years or older</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>Filly</td>
<td>Male horse under the age of 4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>Foal</td>
<td>Male horse 4 years old or older</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>Mare</td>
<td>A horse of either sex between 1 and 2 years old</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>E</td>
<td>Colt</td>
<td>A horse of either sex less than a year old</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F</td>
<td>Yearling</td>
<td>Female horse under the age of 4</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

B. The author seems to enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. An example from Chapter Two is “We'll teach them a thing or two.”

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>The sound of an angry hive of bees</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A baby crying</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>From your imagination</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

C. Copy out any three sentences from these chapters and underline the nouns.
D. The word “rope” can be used as a noun or a verb, depending on the sentence. Use your imagination and write sentences to illustrate how this word can be used as both a noun and a verb.

Rope

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Noun</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Verb</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

E. Talk Show

With two or three other students prepare to participate in a television talk show featuring characters from these chapters. Choose an interesting character from the book (it doesn’t necessarily have to be Albert). Prepare about a half-dozen questions to ask and possible answers.
Extension Activity

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel.

Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first two chapters of War Horse. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
