Suggestions and Expectations

This curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on four chapters of Where the Mountain Meets the Moon and is comprised of five of the following different activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Language Activities
- Extension Activities

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to:

a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
c) compare and contrast two characters;
d) determine how characters . . . respond to challenges;
e) drawing inferences from the text;
f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking. Students will also be expected to provide clear answers to questions and well-constructed explanations. It is critical as well that students be able to relate events and the feelings of characters to their own lives and experiences and describe their own interpretation of a particular passage.

A strength of the unit is that students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included (p.7) so that students may organize their work and keep it all in one place. A Student Checklist is also included (p.6) so that a record of completed work may be recorded.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include fortune and fate, persistence, generosity and thankfulness.

Chapters 1-4

Before you read the chapters:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The main character of Where the Mountain Meets the Moon is Minli, a young girl who lived in China many years ago. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you’ve seen. What do you think makes for an especially interesting protagonist?

Vocabulary:

Language Activities

A. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first four chapters of Where the Mountain Meets the Moon.

Good to Know ~ Goldfish

A small member of the carp family, the goldfish was one of the earliest fish to be domesticated. It is thought that the goldfish was first domesticated in China more than one thousand years ago. Today it is one of the most commonly kept aquarium fish. They vary greatly in size and color, and can be found in various combinations of white, yellow, orange, red, brown and black.

B. A Poem About a Dragon.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following quatrain entitled My Pet Dragon, was written by the humorous poet, Atrocious Halitosis.

A dragon makes a dandy pet
It don't shed and it don't sweat.
It lazes round the house all day
And doesn't have a lot to say.

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of A – A – B – B Other rhyming schemes include: ABAB, AAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBB, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first four chapters of our novel.

The Quatrain Poem

Now create your own Quatrain Poem. Your poem must follow the format of a quatrain poem described above (and must rhyme).

Title: ____________________________________________

[Blank space for poem]
C. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter One is: … his black eyes sparkled like raindrops in the sun….

~ What is being compared in this example?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your own imagination:

a) the speed of a race horse

b) the beauty of the northern lights

c) your choice

D. Many authors enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. Here are two such examples: from Chapter Two: … seeing her parents patiently working, backs bent…

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>A dragon in flight.</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A barren mountain.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Your choice.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Extension Activity

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel. Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first four chapters of our novel. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
